What makes the Arriflex so popular?

DU MONT

Primarily, its incredible adaptability to industry's ever-varying requirements. No matter where Arriflex goes—in the plant, in the laboratory, in the office, or out on location—it always does the job better and more easily, faster and more economically than any other motion picture camera.

No wonder the Arriflex keeps winning the warmest praise from cinematographers in hundreds of leading corporations! And industrial films shot with Arriflex keep winning more awards than any others.*
